

Document management shrinks carbon footprint Agreement ensures quality services for healthcare sector

For Immediate Release

April 15, 2009

Toronto - DOCUdavit Solutions Inc., Canada's premier document management provider, is expanding its medical practice portfolio, taking over the delivery of services for clients currently with Green & McQueen Medical File Management healthcare document specialists, effective April 19, 2009.

With over 20 years of experience assisting medical, legal, business and accounting professionals with document management and disaster recovery services, DOCUdavit Solutions Inc. facilitates PIPEDA-compliant means of reducing the time and resources involved in managing files, enabling clients to lighten their paperwork load and minimize waste. We welcome the opportunity to enhance our working relationship with the healthcare profession and assist clients with augmenting their electronic data bases safely and securely, while reducing their carbon footprint.

Green & McQueen Medical File Management, a family-owned business based in Mississauga ON, is winding down its services after more than 20 years providing document archival and management solutions to Ontario's medical profession.

For more information, contact:

Sid Soil
VP Business Development
DOCUdavit Solutions Inc.
t: 416-781-9083 ext. 105
e: ssoil@docudavit.com